Handcrafted Card Magic – Volume 3
(Denis Behr, 2018)

Page 41: This basic method, albeit with a slightly more convoluted handling, was also published by Burling Hull in the routine "An Experiment in the Science of Impossibility" in his book The Amazing World of Mentalism, 1976, p. 55.

Page 41: Footnote 28: I found a much earlier reference of this idea than "Irreversible": Ed Marlo used this principle to force a card in his "Technicolor Prediction" on page 64 of Ireland's Year Book 1962.

Page 49: For a related routine what the second phase is concerned, see Stanley Collins's "The 'Essee' Nap Hand Deal" in Will Goldston's The Magazine of Magic, February 1916, p. 149.
